

I demand that the net neutrality laws currently in place be upheld. I support the preservation of net neutrality and Title II. Net neutrality is an essential part of our democracy and equals free speech. The internet is not meant to be controlled by powerful corporations.